DESCRIPTION

In the midst of the great resignation and the war for talent, many organizations struggle to attract and retain next generation leaders. The triangility Junior Leadership Program is designed to strike the balance between 'what' young leaders need to know to thrive in their new roles, and 'how' they can learn that in the most effective way.

We equip the next generation of leaders with the skills, tools, and mindset to succeed in today's complex, uncertain and rapidly changing (business) world. This training provides an opportunity for future leaders to grow both personally and professionally. That will allow your organization to foster talent retention and unleash and harness the full potential of young people.

The program covers core leadership competencies such as self-awareness, communication, team development, and culture change. And it also addresses challenges and opportunities arising from current mega-trends, industry developments, changing customer needs. In doing so, we equip young people with the skills and knowledge to effectively lead themselves, others and business in today's VUCA world.

- Talents will learn the core leadership duties of traditional and New Leadership
- Talents will discover practical methods and tools for developing themselves into a future leadership role - personally and professionally
- Talents will learn how they can form and lead teams to foster greater autonomy and high-performance
- Talents will understand their role in developing strategy, changing business models and becoming a driving force in culture change

METHODS & PHILOSOPHY

The New Leadership Learning Journey consist of 3 integrated elements: Classroom, social learning and on-the-job learning.

In 10 training modules of 3-4 hours each, our experienced coaches and facilitators introduce your talents to the principles, competences and practices of New Leadership.

These will be further developed and deepened through carefully curated content, templates, and tools in self-organized and self-paced learning groups. Through coaching on demand, as well as in peer-groups, we ensure practical application of the learnings to achieve real results in your organization.

CONTENT & FLOW

Preparation

Fill out our signature Leadership Identity Questionnaire before the beginning of the learning journey. You will gain first insights around the beliefs and experiences that have shaped how you view and behave in a leadership role.

Module 1: New & Next - Changing business context

Understand the way in which business is changing internally (culture & leadership), but primarily externally:

- Explore the concept of VUCA and reflect on how it impacts your personal and professional life (CYNEFIN Framework)
- Identify current global and industry trends that affect your customers' behavior and business operations (Megatrend Map & Value Pyramid)
- Define the required mind- and skillset for leading in complex and uncertain times (New Leadership Principles)

Module 2: Self-Reflection

Change starts inside-out as talents grow their self-awareness and their response-ability as (future) leaders:

- Gain clarity on what leadership means for you and why you do (not) want to be a leader, based on your positive/negative experiences, assumptions, values, and beliefs (Reflection Map)
- Reflect the unconscious parts of your personality and how they shape your leadership identity (Iceberg Model; Deconstructing Realities Process)
- Gain insights into neuroscience to learn how to reprogram your mind and step into the full potential of your (leadership) identity

Module 3: Self-Development

Learn how to drive your personal and professional development at work and in life:

- Identify your personality type and related strengths (e.g. Strengths Finder)
- Map out areas for personal & professional growth (4 Talent Quadrants)
- Become aware of the ways in which you unconsciously sabotage yourself (Saboteur Test)
- Practice shifting your behavioral blueprint from unconscious reaction to conscious response (S.O.U.L. Process)

Module 4: Lead with Communication

Explore how to effectively talk through tension using conscious communication:

- Refresh the fundamentals of good communication, i.e. building rapport, active listening, asking deeper and broader questions
- Become aware of your perception and how you give meaning to people, words, and actions (4 Ears Model & Tattoo Girl Exercise)

- Learn about the difference between groups & teams, as well as what helps teams survive or thrive (5 Dysfunctions of a Team Model)
- Explore the strengths of different team members and match them to specific tasks (SKATE-Model)
- Recognize how your beliefs about others shape their behavior and performance (Theory X & Y)
- Foster performance by providing autonomy and psychological safety (Trust vs. Performance Model)

CONTENT & FLOW

Module 7: Develop High-Performance Teams

Become a transformational leader who helps teams to help themselves:

- Understand the nature of performance and how to unleash it by fostering motivation, individual strengths, and psychological safety
- Learn to lead groups with structures & process, rather than with your own expertise & experience (3 Leadership Lenses)
- Build your dialogic competences to deepen the connection to and between your team members (The Dialogic Process; 4 Players Model)
- Gain coaching skills and practice to GROW your team (GROW Model)

Module 8: Collaboration & Co-Creation

Learn how to unleash the potential of all without making decisions, but facilitate collaboration:

- Get to know the basics of effective facilitation and identify key characteristics of a good facilitator (SKATE Competence Model)
- Brainstorm what makes a great workshop or meeting
- Learn how to foster self-organization and autonomy in teams (Liberating Structures), focus on process & structures
